AURA - Bridges Management System

Madrid, Spain / 2019-2023

Characteristics

Advanced web platform that enables the management of existing bridges and structures

AURA is an advanced web platform that enables the management of existing bridges and structures. It provides inventory data, inspection and maintenance information, and sophisticated tools for data analysis and decision making, such as permits for large vehicles or repair cost estimates.